

Event title: Biannual international (post) graduate course: Challenges of Europe Inclusion and Exclusion in Contemporary European Societies; 11th Edition – Challenges of Europe: Populism, Parochialism and Autocratic Leadership.

Location: Dubrovnik, Croatia

Date: 16 – 20 April 2018

Abstract/Description:

ETHOS was represented during the session 'The Other in discourses'. Dorota Lepianka gave a lecture on 'Boundary drawing and othering in recent political discourse' based on the preliminary findings for deliverable 4.2: Justice in European Political Discourse – comparative report of six country cases.

Audience:

Graduate and post-graduate students and academics participating in the 11th Edition of the course.

Footnote:

The biannual international (post) graduate course: Challenges of Europe Inclusion and Exclusion in Contemporary European Societies is organized by the Inter University Centre, an initiative of 200 Universities from all over Europe and North America. Since the first Edition (1998) around 200 and around 30 researches from over 25 countries have participated in the course.